DEVOTED TO THE INTERESTS OF WASHINGTON COUNTY

VOLUME VI.

SPRINGFIELD, KY., WEDNESDAY, MARCH 9, 1910.

NUMBER 14

UNCLE DAVE CROUCH DIES

At His Home Near Willisburg.
Deaths of Other People
Of The County.

Uncle Dave Crouch, known for many years as a faithful public official and a quaint character of Washington county, died at his home between Willisburg and Tatham Springs, Friday morning, March 4th, at 10 o'clock. Uncle Dave had for years been a sufferer from stomach trouble, the malady which caused his death, but it was only a month before his death that he was compelled to take to his bed, and he was destined never to leave alive. Uncle Dave was idolized by his family and honored and respected by his neighbors, who gave him every attention during his sickness.

The deceased had passed the three score and ten mark and during many years of his life had served the people of his neighborhood by filling most creditably the office of constable. Years ago the office was not a sinecure by any means, but Uncle Dave never faltered in the performance of his duty, he was the danger what it might. He was married when a young man to Miss Elizabeth Cheatham, who survives. To this union eleven children were born, nine of whom, eight sons and one daughter, survive, one son and one daughter having preceded their father to the grave. The funeral sermon was preached at Rockbridge church on Saturday by Rev. Summa, and the remains consigned to mother earth in the cemetery in the rear of the church where rest the ashes of many of the best and truest men and women the county has produced. Hundreds of friends were present to pay the last tribute of respect which the living can pay to the dead.

A death, the circumstances of which were especially sad, was that of Mrs. Bertie Shewmaker, wife of John Shewmaker, who died of pneumonia at the home of her father, Robt. Mattingly, Friday, March 4th. Only eleven days before the death of Mrs. Shewmaker her brother, Joe Mattingly, had died of pneumonia and it was while attending his funeral that Mrs. Shewmaker became so ill that she was unable to return to her home but was compelled to stop at her father's where she lingered a sufferer, until relieved by death. The funeral services were conducted by Rev. Wolfe, of the Christian church, on Saturday and the remains buried in the Mackville cemetery. The deceased was only twenty-four years of age at the time of her death. Her husband and one little girl survive.

Mr. Joe Johnson, one of the best-known citizens of the western portion of this county, died at his home near Manton on March 2, 1910, of tuberculosis. The deceased was 63 years of age and is survived by four children, three sons and one daughter. The funeral services were held at Fredericktown and the interment was in St. Dominic cemetery.

The infant child of Prof. C. O. Durham died at the home of its parents at Texas last Sunday and was buried at Bethlehem cemetery on Monday.

More Than a Century.

A hundred and two years old is Mrs. Teresa Devine, of this vicinity. Seldom is it the lot of a person to live to celebrate the hundredth anniversary of his or her birth, but such is the rare fortune of Mrs. Teresa Devine, who is one hundred and two, this February the 22nd, and today she still enjoys good health, and the people of this community wish her great happiness and many more years. Mrs. Devine has been married four times and has eight children, only two of whom are living, Mr. Marion McCarty, of Indiana, and Mrs. Mary Lee Walls, of Marion county. She has seen all of the little towns around grow from a few shanties to their present prosperous and populous condition, cities of several thousand inhabitants, and remembers when the wolves came to the cabin door and howled and when the stars all fell before the war. Her last husband died nineteen years ago, since which time she has lived with her daughter, Mrs. Mary Lee Walls. In spite of her years she helps cook and wash dishes and sweeps and makes up her own bed. She does these things for the reason that she likes to do them, and keep herself busy. She is quite active, has extra good eyesight, hears well and has as good a memory as one of fifty or sixty years. She has many relatives and friends over the county and in Marion county especially, all of whom send her greetings and a wish that she may live to see many other anniversaries of her birth. —Luk Run Correspondent in Marion, Pa.

MURDER CASE CONTINUED

Holiday Trial Goes Over to Next
Term of Circuit Court—Two Murder Cases Next Week.

When the case of the Commonwealth vs. Erasmus Holiday, charged with killing Thos. Ward, was called last week the Commonwealth announced ready for trial. The defense moved for a continuance on the grounds of the absence of material witnesses. The attorneys for the Commonwealth refused to admit the statements contained in the affidavit filed by the defendant and the Court granted a continuance to the next term of Court. The Commonwealth was represented by Commonwealth's Attorney Hill, County Attorney Moyes, and J. W. S. Clements. The defendant by J. W. Lewis, W. C. McChord and W. D. Claybrooke. The grand jury on Monday returned indictments for murder in the first degree against Henry Davison for killing Prentice Bobbitt, and against Joe Reed and Rod Johnson for killing John Kimberlin. The trial of the former is set for Thursday, March 17th, and of the latter for Monday, March 14th. Oscar Graves, a well known farmer of this county, was adjudged a lunatic Monday in Circuit Court.

Whiteman—Canary.

Miss Adra Canary, daughter of Mr. Abram Canary, and Mr. Arthur Whiteman, son of Mr. Henry Whiteman, were quietly married by Rev. Wolfe, pastor of the Christian church, at the home of the bride's uncle, Mr. Robt. C. Canary, this afternoon at 3:30 o'clock. The bride is a beautiful young woman not yet out of her teens, who for some time has been making her home with Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Canary while attending the High School at this place. She is possessed of a sweetness of disposition and a grace of manner which have won for her as friends, all with whom she has come in intimate contact. The groom is a well-known young farmer, who lives in the Pleasant Grove neighborhood, where Mr. and Mrs. Whiteman will make their home.

The Lash of a Friend

would have been about as welcome to A. Cooper of Oswego, N. Y., as a mercies lung-racking cough that defied all remedies for years. "It was most troublesome tonight," he writes, "nothing helped me till I used Dr. King's New Discovery which cured me completely. I never coughed at night now." Millions know its matchless merit for stubborn colds, obstinate coughs, sore lungs, lagrippe, asthma, hemorrhage, croup, whooping cough, or hayfever. It relieves quickly and never fails to satisfy. A trial convinces. 50c, $1.00. Trial bottle free. It's positively guaranteed by Haydon & Robertson.

TOBACCO WAREHOUSE

To be Used as Loose Leaf Market
To be Built at Once.—Makes Three For The Town.

When the tobacco market of 1910 opens next fall there will have been built at this place another large tobacco warehouse to be used as a market for the sale of loose leaf tobacco. A corporation has been formed, the stockholders of which are among the most prominent farmers of the County. Men who are able to command a considerable quantity of the tobacco raised in this and adjoining counties. The new warehouse will be 200 feet by 100 feet and will be equipped with all of the conveniences of an up to date warehouse. It will be built on the lot on the north of West Main which has been purchased from Mrs. Palmer Grundy. Work will begin on the plant as soon as Spring comes and the building will be completed before the time for the first sale in the fall of 1910.

The new corporation will be known as the Springfield Loose Leaf Tobacco warehouse Company.

This makes the third warehouse for the sale of tobacco to be erected here within a year, two of which have been in operation during the present sales season. The quantity of tobacco raised and handled in this and adjacent counties justifies another sales however.

HIGHEST SINCE CIVIL WAR

Top Hogs Go to $10.25 And Seem
To Be Going Up.

Hogs started out today at the Bourbon Stock Yards as if they meant to go to $11 in the course of a week or so. Tops sold at $10.25, an advance of twenty-five cents compared with yesterday and a new high record since the Civil War. There were only 170 hogs on sale. Other grades were from ten to fifteen cents higher than yesterday. Cattle and sheep receipts were rather light, but prices were unchanged.

Clay Apprehended.

Charley Clay, the negro boy who cut Estill Hardin last week, as reported in the Sun of March 2nd, was arrested on Wednesday of last week at the home of Garfield Devine just over the line in Mercer county. He was taken into custody by the deputy sheriff of Mercer county and lodged in jail at Harrodsburg. Jailer Catlett went to Harrodsburg the following day and brought the boy back to Springfield where he is now lodged in jail. The present grand jury will investigate the cutting of Hardin and no doubt return an indictment against his assailant.

Wide-a-Wake Citizen.

Mr. W. J. DeBaun, the progressive citizen, has fully completed the handsome thirty stall livery stable on Danville street. It has been leased to Mr. W. W. Hattebett, who is running the place with great success. Mr. DeBaun is making arrangements to purchase more land upon which to erect several additional dwellings. —Danville Advocate.

It Saved His Leg.

"All thought I'd lose my leg," writes J. A. Swensen, of Watertown, Wis., "Ten years of excruciating pain, that I doctors could not cure, had at last laid me up. Then Bucklen's Arnica Salve cured it, sound and well." Infallible for skin eruptions, Eczema, Salt Rheum, Boils, Fever sores, Burns, Scalds, Cuts and Piles. 25c. at Haydon & Robertson.

...RAISE A PIG...

If you wish to own an auto that will travel fast and far.

Raise a pig;
If you have a dear desire for a splendid private car.
Raise a pig;
If your daughter yearns for jewels that will make a lurid blaze,
Or your wife would be a leader where some other matron awaits;
If you wish to give up tolling and in comfort spend your days,
There's a way—don't overlook it—
Raise a pig.

If you're sick of serving others and are longing for a change,
Raise a pig;
If you wish to gaze at wonders that are far away and strange,
Raise a pig;
If your son would like to squander money on a chorus girl,
If you yearn to own a castle having walls inland with pearl,
If your darling daughter wishes to be married to an Earl,
There's a way—don't overlook it—
Raise a pig.

—Exchange.

MERITED HONOR,

Conferred on Washington County
Girl—Miss Nancy Shehan
Orator at Corner Stone
Laying.

Miss Nancy Shehan, daughter of Dr. J. N. Shehan, of Maud, was recently the recipient of quite an honor at the Western State Normal School at Bowling Green, where she is at school. Miss Shehan was selected from the Life Certificate class to deliver an oration at the laying of the corner stone of the new Normal building to be erected. Her subject was, "Woman's Position in the Intellectual March of Kentucky," a rather comprehensive subject, but one which was handled so well by Miss Shehan that upon its conclusion Gov. Wilson was so impressed that he said: "A true daughter of Kentucky. A most eloquent address."

The occasion of the laying of the corner stone was celebrated with addresses by Gov. Wilson and others, music, etc., but no feature was more enjoyable than that of the address by Miss Shehan.

"The Girl From U. S. A."

The theatrical season is now drawing to a close and it is probable that not a great number of attractions remain to be seen at the Opera House. Manager Hayden has, however, secured at least one great attraction for this place before the close of the season. This is the sparkling musical comedy, "The Girl From U. S. A.," which is presented by a company of over thirty people, and with a chorus whose beauty of face and of attire will even more than cause the rapturous, head-bowed row to sit up and take notice. The music of this musical comedy is said to be catchy, the staging and costumes effective and something unusual in musical comedy, that there is a distinct and well-defined plot in "The Girl From U. S. A."

This musical organization is billed to appear here March 17, and tickets will be on sale at the Red Cross Drugstore.

Creamery Sold.

The lot and plant belonging to the Washington County Creamery Association were sold at public auction Saturday and knocked down to E. S. Mayes Jr. for the sum of $731. Some of the utensils which were used when the creamery was in operation sold for about $20.

The Creamery Association was incorporated and began operating about three years ago and was run until last summer when its operation was discontinued because of its being a losing proposition. Splendid butter was made and found a ready sale at good prices, but not enough milk was furnished to make sufficient butter to pay.

Mr. Mayes will probably use the building for a tenant house.

Johnson Declared Nominee.

At the meeting of the Democratic committee of the Fourth Congressional District held at the Old Inn in Louisville last Saturday Hon. Ben Johnson was nominated for the third time for Congress. This is also the third time that Congressman Johnson has received the nomination without opposition. The committee further demonstrated their confidence in the ability and integrity of Mr. Johnson by unanimously endorsing his candidacy for the gubernatorial nomination next year.

Hon. Sam T. Spaulding of Marion County, presided over the meeting and Washington county was represented by Jos. Polin, chairman of the Democratic county committee.

Easter Sale.

The Ladies of the Presbyterian church will have an Easter sale on Saturday, March 26. They will have for the public cakes, salad, dressed chickens, hams, and most everything for your Easter dinner. Hand us your order and it will be appreciated.

A Man of Iron Nerve.

Indomitable will and tremendous energy are never found where Stomach, Liver, Kidneys and Bowels are out of order. If you want these qualities and the success they bring, use Dr. King's New Life Pills, the matchless regulators for keen brain and strong body. 25c at Haydon & Robertson.

MULE NEAR CENTURY MARK

Still Able to Do a Good Day's Work and Seems Lively
As a Colt.

Harrodsburg, Ky., March 4.—It has often been said that a mule and an officeholder never die, and a corroboration of the longevity of at least one of these animals is to be found in "Old Ike," a mule belonging to K. B. Shouse, of this county. "Ike's" history is most interesting. He belonged first to Mr. Shouse's grandfather, and when he died at the age of eighty-six Ike was given to his son, who was the father of the present owner. When the tocsin of the Civil war was sounded over the land, Mr. Shouse's father saddled Old Ike and started out with the soldier boys to fight for the Union. Together they braved many a fierce encounter and met with many exciting adventures. At the Battle of Perryville Old Ike and his rider were in the thickest of the fray. This battle was fought October 8, 1862.

When the white-winged dove of peace once more spread its wings over the strifetorn country, Old Ike and his master, worn and weary and battle-scarred turned their steps homeward once more. Mr. Shouse says his father always loved his faithful old comrade, and used to point with pride to the "U. S." branded on the animal during the war. When he passed away thirty seven years ago he left the mule to his son, the present owner.

Mr. Shouse says the mule has helped to pull a threshing every year, and has assisted in building over forty turpentine sheds he has owned here. He is a family pet, and, in spite of his great age, has never seemed to lose the fire and ambition of his youth. Mr. Shouse says he is as hale and hearty now as when his father left him to his care, and that he was offered $75 for him three different times this week. But Mr. Shouse looks on the mule as an heirloom in his family and says he would not part with him for any consideration. Mr. Shouse says that from what has been handed down to him he knows the mule is between ninety and one hundred years old.

Itch Relieved At Once.

That terrible itch disappears with the First Drops of a simple compound of oil of wintergreen, thymol and glycerine mixed in D. D. D. Prescription. This soothing, healing lotion, used externally kills the eczema germ instantly.

Heretofore, the D. D. D. remedy has been sold only in $1.00 bottles; but as a special offer, any sufferer in this town who has never tried D. D. D. can now try this remedy in a special bottle at 25c. It cures the itch instantly. We know this. For sale by Haydon & Robertson.

BOARD ISSUE BILL

FAILED TO RECEIVE NECESSARY CONSTITUTIONAL MAJORITY.

EATON RAISES POINT OF ORDER

County Unit Measure Passes House. "Drive" Hope to Squeeze It Through Senate, But "Wets" Are Actively at Work.

Frankfort, Ky.—The $500,000 bond issue bill introduced by Senator B. M. Arnett was killed on a point of order after it had seemed to have passed. The fight on the bill was led by Senator Bertram, who made the point that Senator Linn had voted with the majority but had not moved to reconsider the bill.

The bill, which was introduced by Senator Linn, who moved to reconsider the bill, was defeated by a vote of 37 to 14, and the emergency clause having been stricken out, President Cook declared the bill passed. "Just a few minutes ago," said Senator Eaton, who joined hands with Senator Bertram, "I arise to a point of order. Section 46 of the constitution provides that any measure creating a debt must receive a constitutional majority, and as this measure only received 17 votes it is lost."

The house bill empowering the state auditor to advance the assessment of Jefferson county $15,000 a month, to be later deducted from his commissions, passed 20 to 1.

The senate bill to pay the expenses of the state tax commission, amounting to $2,322, passed 24 to 1.

Senate Bill 12, giving women the right to vote in school elections and to hold school offices, was amended by making a property qualification necessary for a woman to so vote. Passed, as amended, 17 to 12.

Senate Bill 12, providing a penalty for misfeasance in the office of county school superintendents, passed 27 to 6.

Senate Bill 20, to permit sheriffs to hold bonds for confinement of county levies, in a definite sum, instead of double the amount of the taxes to be collected, passed 27 to 4.

Relief to Burley Growers.

When Gov. Wilson affixes his signature to the bill introduced by the house by Representative J. S. Steer, of Grant county, making warehouse receipts by corporations negotiable and transferable, the bill will become a law, which will relieve the situation of the tobacco growers in the burley districts.

Under the provisions of this act the tobacco growers will be able to store their tobacco as soon as it is delivered to the Burley Tobacco warehouse companies. The bill passed the house and the senate unanimously.

The bill providing for the change of the time of holding courts in the First Judicial district passed the senate 25 to 6.

Changes in Parole Law.

The bill to repeal the parole law and to enact a new one, which in its place was passed by the house—67 to 0. The committee on rules called up Senate Bill 78, providing for changing one of the penalties into a state reformatory in which convicts under 30 years of age shall be confined, except by habeas corpus, was passed by a vote of 79 to 0.

Plea for River Trade.

Claiming that Ohio river packet companies will virtually be forced out of business if the commerce law, which the Kentucky legislature has passed, is put into effect, the Louisville board of trade voted to send a delegation to Frankfort to defeat the measure. The measure places regulation of packet companies under the jurisdiction of the interstate commerce commission. The board holds that such a law would greatly damage river trade.

"With a 'hip and a hurrah,' the county unit bill passed the house by a vote of 63 to 25, and will be sent to the senate. The supporters of the bill have not the same hopes that it will pass the senate as it did the house. By parliamentary tactics, however, the legislature may pass its passage, and then it is likely that it will be passed, but the wets will not be idle.

The county unit bill was reported to the senate as having passed the house, and was allowed to take its regular course.

The regular committee called from the senate of H. B. 34, J. W. Holland—To regulate the establishment of industrial schools. The bill provides that before any school, college or institution is established, permission to operate such an institution must be had by the legal voters in the precinct in which such institution is sought to be located. The provisions of this act do not apply to cities of the first, second, third or fourth class or to schools, colleges and institutions already in existence. The bill was passed by a vote of 63 to 7.

Representative Carter offered a resolution, seconded by Holland, that House Bill 469, originated by the rules committee, authorizing the issuance of warrants bearing warrants to pay claims against the state, be taken from the orders of the day and placed upon its passage. An amendment was offered by Carter providing a flat rate of interest of 5 per cent, saying it was to prevent warrants being split into small amounts, which amendment was adopted. The bill was passed by a vote of 63 to 7.

In the senate the bill providing for an amendment to the present libel law was passed, creating practically a new statute and protecting the papers or publications by a retraction. Willen Blamed for Lack of Funds.

Arrangement of Gov. Wilson for "squandering" the state's money in his war on night riders and for the alleged breaking up of the first regiment in Louisville, "squandering" the state's money, the opinion is written by Commissioner Latta, and says that neither the state nor federal constitution is violated by the act, which is a protection to the governor and the department of adjutant general. The committee began by setting out that $189,000 has been spent on the state guard in two years, $189,000 of it for active militia, practically a "night rider" trouble. One item was $10,000 to a Hopkinsville liveryman for horse hire. It sets out that the militia was sent into 34 counties, and by admission of Gov. Wilson, into practically all of them without request of the local authorities. The committee declares this action of the governor to be a "flagrant violation" of the constitution and the bill of rights, saying that he sent troops in some instances without the necessary request of the local authorities, and without ever ascertaining the need therefor from the civil authorities. Commending what it termed the "flagrant violation" of the constitution, the committee says it must more strongly condemn the acts of the governor for violating the plain letter of the law. The committee set at great length the "raid" of a Woodman of the East lodge at Wallonia, Trigg county, by a detail of soldiers seeking alleged night riders, and of the alleged desecration of a Masonic temple, and the raid. The committee recites that the adjutant general declined to go into this matter, saying he was not on the spot, and that the militia was sent in the opinion that he had the $189,000 been spent for active militia by the governor, the treasury would not be so depleted.

The income tax amendment to the Federal Constitution, approved in a corrected resolution offered by Mr. Brooks, was passed by a vote of 77 to 2.

The first step toward the investigation of the office of Commissioner of Agriculture Hankins was when Representative Owens offered a resolution, which was adopted, authorizing the committee on agriculture of this house to investigate the condition of the department of labor and statistics. The resolution sets out the fact that it has been charged that politics have been injected into the State Farmers' Institute, and the committee is directed to investigate this condition. The house passed the bill of J. S. Steer, providing for the careful handling of gasoline in uniform tanks, prohibiting the use of tanks for oil, 53 to 6.

Senator Mark Ryan, of Louisville, said his bill making the members of the Louisville board of waterworks eligible to succeed themselves in office enacted 28 to 0. It also provides that the term of office of the board members may be increased by $50,000.

Senator Callett's bill to pay jurors summoned for service, but not accepted, was passed 45 to 0.

The bill of Senator Thomas providing for a board of forestry and appropriating $20,000 to establish the department of labor and statistics, which was passed practically without opposition.

Big Sum Will Be Divided Among State and Federal Delegates.

Lexington, Ky.—It is expected that $1,000,000 will be distributed at once to claimants against the Southern Railway Investment Co. as a result of confirmation of the report of Receiver J. C. Rogers, by the circuit court here. The investment company failed several years ago to pay the bondholders and is being liquidated in every state of the Union.

What Is Happening Throughout the State

TAKES ISSUE WITH TAFT.

Director of State University Refuses to Accept Chief Executive's Dictum as to What Is Whisky.

Frankfort, Ky.—Whisky under Uncle Sam's law is not whisky under the law of the state, says the director of the State University, in a report.

Prof. Scovell takes radical issue with President Taft, and declines to accept the chief executive's dictum that neutral spirits reduced by water to the proof of whisky, and artificially colored, is whisky. He holds that the regulations of the national government are not in harmony with the true nature of the whisky, and therefore, promulgates regulations of his own. The report of Director Scovell is not confined to whisky, but extends to the regulation of the marketing of food and drug products on the market, in which he has found injurious preservatives and other chemicals.

CRECELIOUS LAW UPHELD.

Court of Appeals Declares Act is Constitutional.

Frankfort, Ky.—That the Crecelious law, which imposes a fine upon a grower for selling pooled tobacco and on the dealer for buying pooled tobacco, is constitutional was held by the court of appeals. The case was that of Commonwealth against Hodges and R. C. West, of Christian county, and the judgment of the court is in favor of the growers. The opinion is written by Commissioner Latta, and says that neither the state nor federal constitution is violated by the act, which is a protection to the governor and the department of adjutant general. The committee began by setting out that $189,000 has been spent on the state guard in two years, $189,000 of it for active militia, practically a "night rider" trouble. ## What Is Happening Throughout the State

TAKES ISSUE WITH TAFT.

Director of State University Refuses to Accept Chief Executive's Dictum as to What Is Whisky.

Frankfort, Ky.—Whisky under Uncle Sam's law is not whisky under the law of the state, says the director of the State University, in a report.

Prof. Scovell takes radical issue with President Taft, and declines to accept the chief executive's dictum that neutral spirits reduced by water to the proof of whisky, and artificially colored, is whisky. He holds that the regulations of the national government are not in harmony with the true nature of the whisky, and therefore, promulgates regulations of his own. The report of Director Scovell is not confined to whisky, but extends to the regulation of the marketing of food and drug products on the market, in which he has found injurious preservatives and other chemicals.

CRECELIOUS LAW UPHELD.

Court of Appeals Declares Act is Constitutional.

Frankfort, Ky.—That the Crecelious law, which imposes a fine upon a grower for selling pooled tobacco and on the dealer for buying pooled tobacco, is constitutional was held by the court of appeals. The case was that of Commonwealth against Hodges and R. C. West, of Christian county, and the judgment of the court is in favor of the growers. The opinion is written by Commissioner Latta, and says that neither the state nor federal constitution is violated by the act, which is a protection to the governor and the department of adjutant general. The committee began by setting out that $189,000 has been spent on the state guard in two years, $189,000 of it for active militia, practically a "night rider" trouble. One item was $10,000 to a Hopkinsville liveryman for horse hire. It sets out that the militia was sent into 34 counties, and by admission of Gov. Wilson, into practically all of them without request of the local authorities. The committee declares this action of the governor to be a "flagrant violation" of the constitution and the bill of rights, saying that he sent troops in some instances without the necessary request of the local authorities, and without ever ascertaining the need therefor from the civil authorities. Commending what it termed the "flagrant violation" of the constitution, the committee says it must more strongly condemn the acts of the governor for violating the plain letter of the law. The committee set at great length the "raid" of a Woodman of the East lodge at Wallonia, Trigg county, by a detail of soldiers seeking alleged night riders, and of the alleged desecration of a Masonic temple, and the raid. The committee recites that the adjutant general declined to go into this matter, saying he was not on the spot, and that the militia was sent in the opinion that he had the $189,000 been spent for active militia by the governor, the treasury would not be so depleted.

The income tax amendment to the Federal Constitution, approved in a corrected resolution offered by Mr. Brooks, was passed by a vote of 77 to 2.

The first step toward the investigation of the office of Commissioner of Agriculture Hankins was when Representative Owens offered a resolution, which was adopted, authorizing the committee on agriculture of this house to investigate the condition of the department of labor and statistics. The resolution sets out the fact that it has been charged that politics have been injected into the State Farmers' Institute, and the committee is directed to investigate this condition. The house passed the bill of J. S. Steer, providing for the careful handling of gasoline in uniform tanks, prohibiting the use of tanks for oil, 53 to 6.

Senator Mark Ryan, of Louisville, said his bill making the members of the Louisville board of waterworks eligible to succeed themselves in office enacted 28 to 0. It also provides that the term of office of the board members may be increased by $50,000.

Senator Callett's bill to pay jurors summoned for service, but not accepted, was passed 45 to 0.

Come to Blows.

Frankfort, Ky., March 4.—Senator Tuck Hubble, of Stanford, and V. Vernon Richardson, editor of the Danville Advocate, came to blows in the lobby of the Capitol Hotel last night.

Joe Embury, doorkeeper of the House, a giant in strength, separated the combatants.

Hubble called Richardson a liar and struck him. Richardson claims that Hubble promised him he would support the county unit bill, and Hubble says he made no such promise. The men met here for the first time since Richardson recently published a scathing editorial denouncing Senator Hubble and called upon him to keep his alleged promise.

Hubble says the only promise he made was that he would vote to prevent the repeal of the present county unit bill. Almost immediately after this scrap, Chief Clerk George S. Peters and Hubert Vreeland, former Commissioner of Agriculture, had a little set-to in the lobby of the hotel but it was not serious. Mutual friends separated the men.

Death of Mr. McWhorter

In writing the death of Mr. E. F. McWhorter, father of Mr. C. R. McWhorter, of this place The Taylor County Enquirer says in part:

Mr. E. F. McWhorter, "Uncle Frank," departed this life at his home in this city February 26th, 1910, born January 11th, 1830; married to Miss Martha Jane Douglass October 4th, 1854, this union of hearts and life was a happy one and only severed by the death of the devoted and loving wife and mother five years ago.

To their were born six children, of which four survive. Raised by their christian parents in the nurture and admonition of the Lord they are today honorable, useful and valuable citizens—Charles R. McWhorter, Springfield, Ky., Mrs. F. F. Ghoslen, Paducah Ky., Mrs. J. A. Wolford, and Miss Emma McWhorter, of this city. He is also survived by one brother and two sisters. Fulsome egotism stands mute at this man's grave! He was a plain, blunt, honorable citizen, a consistent member of the Christian church from early boyhood, a loving and devoted husband and father, and as only such men can, he went to his grave.

"Like one who draws the drapery of his couch about him, and lies down to pleasant dreams."

Good Prices at Public Sale.

Danville, Ky., March 4.—H. D. Stiles held a public sale of stock and crops yesterday afternoon. One hundred head of ewes sold at $6 per head, corn at $3 per barrel, thirty-three head of mules at $160 per head, and fine brood mares at $250 per head. The total sale aggregated $10,000.

James A. Shuttleworth, of this city, today gave H. D. Stiles a check for $50,000 for 313 acres of land located two miles from Danville on the Lebanon pike. Mr. Shuttleworth sold the place five years ago at $105 per acre and bought it back at $105 an acre. The place is one of the most highly improved in Boyle county, and Mr. and Mrs. Shuttleworth will spend their summer upon it. It is the old Tarkington place where Mrs. Shuttleworth lived some years.

Creep for the Lambs.

To hasten growth, lambs must have bran, oats and maybe a very little corn in addition to the mother's milk. This extra feed may be given in a small pen or room adjacent to the general feed lot and connected with it by means of a creep or opening large enough for the lamb but not large enough for a mature sheep. The feed for the lambs must be placed in a trough covered to keep out rain if in an open lot to prevent the lambs getting into it and soiling the feed.—Farmer's Home Journal.

Attacked by Lions.

Lebanon, Ky., March 4.—As a result of a fierce battle with three lions at the ranch of "Cherokee" Ed Baumeister, five miles west of this city, Samuel Rose, aged twenty-three, lies in a local hospital in a precarious condition.

In the absence of the regular keeper, Rose, who is Baumeister's secretary, went to the cage containing the lions to scatter some straw in it. Emitting a roar a huge lion sprang at the man. Thrusting her paw through the iron bars she caught Rose and drew him up against the cage. He was unable to extricate himself, and the other beast attacked him.

Rose's screams brought a half dozen men to the scene, among them Baumeister, who with a pistol, opened fire on the lions. One of them was shot three times and another twice. While each shot took effect and the sight of one of the beasts was destroyed, they apparently, are not seriously hurt.

Practically all the flesh was torn off Rose's arm, and the bones were crushed four or five places. The member was amputated. Baumeister wishes to kill the lions, but he was persuaded not to do so.

Declare War on Housefly.

Washington, Feb. 21.—The common housefly is the object of a nationwide crusade that was launched against him here today. A moving picture campaign of education in theaters throughout the United States and in Canada was perfected by enthusiastic men and women who have organized themselves into the special fly-fighting committee of the American Civic Association.

By the moving picture films they expect to educate everybody to the dangers of the house-fly and transform the population of the United States and Canada into an army that will make his existence short.

Good Cough Medicine for Children.

The season for coughs and colds is now at hand and too much care cannot be used to protect the children. A child is much more likely to contract diphtheria or scarlet fever when he has a cold. The quicker you cure his cold the less the risk. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is the safe reliance of many mothers, and few of those who have tried it are willing to use any other. Mrs. F. E. Starcher of Riley, W. Va., says: "I have never used anything other than Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for my children, and it has always given good satisfaction." This remedy contains no opium or other narcotic and may be given as confidently to a child as to an adult. For sale by Leo Haydon Drug Co.

Indigestion

Relief in Five Minutes and Permanent Cure or Money Back.

When a druggist states that he has a remedy that is guaranteed to cure any man or woman who suffers from food fermentation which causes belching, sour stomach, gas eructations, heartburn and that lump of lead feeling in the abdomen or money back what are the poor stomach sufferers in Springfield and vicinity going to do about it? The name of this most remarkable stomach prescription is Mi-o-na. Most people call them Mi-o-na stomach tablets because they know that there is a remedy so good for indigestion or stomach disorders. Here is one opinion.

"I have been troubled with indigestion for more than a year. I bought one box of Mi-o-na and it cured me. Now I would not be without a box in the house for $50.00. It saves a lot of doctor bills when you can be cured for 50 cents."

You can use my name if you want to,"—Arthur Sederquist, 6 Nichols St. Wakefield, Mass. Nov. 7, 1908.

Mi-o-na stomach tablets cost 50 cents a box at druggists everywhere and at Leo Haydon Drug Co.

Death of Mrs. Shewmaker.

Mrs. John B. Shewmaker fell asleep, March 4, 1910, at the home of her father, Mr. Robert Mattingly, near Springfield, Ky. She was born May 6, 1886; married to John B. Shewmaker, November 30, 1904; aged 24 years, 9 months and 28 days. She had attended the funeral of her brother, Joe Mattingly, just nine days previous to her death, at which she contracted a cold which soon developed into pneumonia. In spite of all medical aid and good nursing, rendered by Dr. Hyatt and Miss Minerva Rayborn, she succumbed to the awful disease on the above named date.

She became a Christian at the age of fifteen and had been a faithful, consistent worker in the church of Christ up to the time of her death. Hers was a most beautiful Christian character, and she will be greatly missed by her relatives and friends. She leaves a husband and one little girl, 4 years of age.

The church has lost a valuable member, the husband a loving wife, the little girl an affectionate mother, the parents a precious daughter. Their loss is Heaven's gain. The funeral was conducted by the writer in the Christian church of Mackville, Ky.

The family wish to express to their friends their appreciation of the sympathy and assistance extended by them during the illness of their daughter and son.

W. A. WOLFE.

In Memory.

In loving remembrance of our dearest aunt, Mrs. Bell Pinkston, who died Feb. 27, 1910.

She is gone but not forgotten,
Never will her memory fade;
Sweetest thoughts will ever linger
Around the grave where she is laid.

We loved her, yes, we loved her,
But the Savior loved her more;
So the angels sweetly called her
To the bright and happy shore.

It was hard, the parting with her;
Oh, so sad to see her die;
But then, we'll try and meet her
Some sweet day, by and by.

Gone from her home, yes, forever,
Although she wanted here to stay;
But God sent his holy angels
To guide her spirit far away.

And the sorrow no tongue can tell,
When the angel of death took her
Far away from those, her kindred,
Our dear aunt, we loved so well.

Double Charge of Buckshot.

Danville, Ky., March 4.—Marcus Jennings, a prominent farmer, forty-two years old, assassinated George McCown colored at Bryansville, at 11 o'clock today.

The negro was seated on the front porch at the residence of William Dickerson, when Jennings, in passing, saw him and fired two charges of buckshot into his head.

It is alleged that Jennings was robbed, and beaten on the head by negroes several years ago, and that his mind was thereby impaired, and since that time has sworn vengeance on the race. Recently he fired a charge of lead into John Mukes, colored. Mukes recovered and was later found dead in a field with his body full of bullet holes.

His murder was never discovered. Sheriff Robertson arrested Jennings and took him to jail.

Ladies, Why Not Preserve Your Youth and Beauty.

Parisian Sage, the quick acting hair restorer, is now for sale in Springfield at the drug store of Leo Haydon Drug Co. and is sold with a rigid guarantee at 50 cents a bottle.

Parisian Sage has an immense sale and here are the reasons.

It is safe and harmless.

It cures dandruff in two weeks, by killing the dandruff germ.

It promptly stops itching of the scalp. It makes the hair soft and luxuriant. It gives life and beauty to the hair. It is not sticky or greasy.

It is the best, the most pleasant and invigorating hair dressing made.

Day after day in the glorious autumn weather we drove the little car down to the sea coast, hither a kopje and yonder a hill, and then a little way by train, but now a pleasant hour's run over healthy moors. Hardly a day all through the winter have we found the weather too bad for a drive.

One great advantage that a motorcar has over a horse is that one is independent of inns and stables. With a well-filled basket an al fresco luncheon or tea can be enjoyed in the open wood or in a quiet by-road, anywhere where there is a track for the wheels.

Japanese Swords.

Unlike the famous blades of Toledo and Damascus, Japanese swords are not flexible and are not made of an equalled for strength and hardness and hold a keen edge. Japanese steel is said to excel even Swedish steel in purity. The manufacture of the sword is an elaborate process. Some ceremonial and ceremonial practices are intertwined with the production operations. The sword hardness is regarded as the most important personage connected with the manufacture. It is his name that is inscribed on the blade. His reputation that enhances the value of sword. Those who shape the blade, sharpen and adorn it are of minor importance.
